You're Invited to Make History...

at the LUTZE HOUSEBARN

This National Historic site is an unusual combination of a house and a barn in one building common in Saxony, Germany where the Lutze family emigrated from in 1848.

Who We Are

Centreville Settlement, Inc. is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the cultural and architectural preservation of the farming heritage of Centerville Township. The focus is a capsule of German immigrant heritage of which many residents are descendants from Saxony, Germany. They continue to farm the land their ancestors settled and the architectural and cultural heritage remains.

The Lutze Housebarn Project

Built in 1849 by Gottlieb and Fredericka Lutze, the housebarn has been on the National Registry of Historic Buildings since 1984. The Lutze Housebarn is one of a few of this particular designs remaining in the United States!

What is happening? What can I do?

- Experience a barn and house where animals and people lived together
- Experience hands-on work with a team
- Connect with the out of doors and natural building materials
- Learn skills of days gone by
- Understand preserving historical records
- Historic Restoration skills
 - o Soap making, quilting & more
 - o Hewing, carpentry, timber framing
 - o Masonry-fieldstone and mortar
 - o Gardening-German 1870s Heirlooms
 - o Heritage grapes, hops and orchard.

Volunteers set up posts for a woven willow fence around a heirloom German Settler Garden!
